

Timothy R. George

tim@timrgeorge.com

<http://timrgeorge.com>

Objective: To obtain career opportunity in a dynamic Information Technology setting with emphasis in the areas of Web Development and Digital Media.

Skills: Languages / Technologies: HTML5/(X)HTML, XML, CSS(2/3), JavaScript, jQuery, Backbone.js, RequireJS, Spring MVC, Apache Velocity, Apache Tiles, PHP, ASP, ASP.NET, VB, MySQL, MS SQL, Oracle DBMS, Java, C++, C#

Version Control: GIT, SVN, TFS, VSS

Operating Systems: Windows Vista/XP/9X, Mac OSX

Software Tools: Sublime Text 2, Spring Tool Suite, Eclipse, Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint, FrontPage, Publisher, Visio, Visual Studio), Adobe Creative Suite (Flash, Fireworks, DreamWeaver, Photoshop, Illustrator), Adobe Director, Pro Tools 7LE

Other:

- Work well on projects in a team setting, both in leadership or support role
- Excellent oral and written communication skills, personable and outgoing
- Effective, organized and able to multi-task
- Hard working; works well with minimum supervision

Experience: Eaton Vance
Boston, MA – May 2015 to Present

Senior Web Developer
May 2015 to Present

- Responsible for support and maintenance for internal marketing configuration applications
- Wrote new common framework system to unite all internal applications with consistent UI patterns
- Converted existing database calls into RESTful web services utilizing JSON data format
- Wrote new libraries to tie into lead-generation API services like Email Hunter and helped to automate the updating of our internal records and CRM systems.

Boston Financial Data Services
Quincy, MA – October 2009 to May 2015

Managing UI/UEX Architect; E-Business Consulting
December 2013 to May 2015

- Responsible for consulting with internal/external clients and proposing user experience solutions
- Lead a team of UI/UEX consultants that played a critical role in the planning of site functionality
- Collaborated with the development teams to ensure proper translation of the overall strategy/vision
- Continued role of Lead Technical Consultant, providing guidance/mentoring to development team
- Researched and implemented front-end frameworks and technologies for new Secure Account Access website, including Backbone.js, Modernizr, jQuery UI, and RequireJS
- Coded transactional workflows for new application utilizing RESTful services created by middleware development team
- Used VTL (Velocity Templating) engine to custom tailor JSON response objects on a per client basis

Lead Technical Consultant / Web & UI Developer; E-Business Consulting

March 2012 to December 2013

- Worked within new E-Business initiative to provide clients with new services and opportunities
- Created new Secure Account Access site while working with a middleware development team. Technologies used to create this included: Spring MVC, Apache Velocity, Apache Tiles, HTML5, CSS, JavaScript
- Researched JavaScript frameworks, including Angular.js, Backbone.js, and Knockout.js
- Developed mobile sites, using responsive web design practices, while focusing on content first
- Used progressive enhancement to serve HTML5 and CSS3 elements; compatible in older browsers

Web Developer - Contract Employment through Kelly Services

September 2011 to March 2012

- Worked remotely from Pennsylvania as a Web Developer Contractor
- Developed a public mobile site for client utilizing HTML5 / CSS Media Queries
- Administered updates to Intranet, Extranet, and Internet sites

Web Developer

September 2009 to September 2011

- Maintained and updated templates for ten different (but similar) sites of one of our clients
- Modified templates existing code to meet current web standards
- Learned the importance of managing time across multiple facets of the same project

Aramark Uniform Services (WearGuard)

Norwell, MA – October 2008 to October 2009

Web Developer

- Revamped existing template files in an effort to make them cross-browser compatible
- Designed and developed a blogging platform for corporate use
- Modified and implemented existing code to meet current web standards
- Gained additional knowledge of administering an ecommerce website

Education: Rochester Institute of Technology Rochester, NY May 2008
Bachelor of Science in Information Technology – Minored in Music
Concentrations in Web Development and Online Digital Media

Relevant Courses: Programming in Java I, II, & III, Computer Concepts and Software Systems, Human Computer Interactions I & II, Needs Assessment, Technology Transfer, Data Communications & Networking, Networking Fundamentals, Intro to Database and Data Modeling, Web Site Design & Implementation, Web Client Side Programming, Programming for World Wide Web, Interactive Multimedia Development, Programming for Digital Media, Digital Audio & Computer Music, Foundations of 2D Graphics Programming

Hobbies & Activities:

- Saxophonist & Bass Clarinetist, enjoys playing with a variety of different bands
- Certified Red Cross Lifeguard - Enjoys teaching swimming lessons
- Building & repairing computers - avid video-gamer
- Building Legos

References: Available upon request